Vice President Wells Promoted and

Mr. Wm. Hicks Chosen Vice President.

SECRETARY'S REPORT READ

The third day of the United Mine Workers sixth annual convention was called to order at 9:40 this morning.

Business for the day was started by the reading of Secretary-Treasurer Campbell's report, which showed that the Twenty-third district was in excellent condition notwithstanding their long strife with the coal magnates. The report showed that the strike cost the Twenty-third district $51,000 for the year 1902 alone, which was expended mostly for commissaries and physicians and attorneys' fees resulting from the long and stubborn contest waged between the operators and miners.

The election of officers was then taken up.

W. M. Wilkes was appointed sergeant at arms to take charge of the convention by President Barney.

The first election held was for the office of national board member with five nominations as follows: D. H. Knight, E. E. Ross, J. D. Wood, A. W. Oakes and U. W. Flom, which resulted in the election of the enigmatic Mr. James D. Wood of Central city, on the first ballot. Mr. Wood received 51 of the 68 votes cast.

For president there were five nominations as follows: Sam B. Filmore, C. Barnaby, O. W. Wells, John Mains and Luther Richardson. On the first ballot Wells received 27 votes, Mains 25, Barnaby 12, Richardson 3 and Filmore 0; necessary to elect 35. It was ordered that the names of Mr. Richardson and Mr. Filmore be dropped, they having received the lowest number of votes. The result of the second ballot was Wells 33, Mains 27 and Barnaby 8. As Mr. Barney was the low man on the second ballot his name was dropped. Mr. O. W. Wells of Island, was elected on the third ballot, receiving 37 votes while 31 votes were cast for Mr. Mains. Mr. Wells is the present vice president of the Twenty-third district. There were three nominees for vice president as follows: Bob Mitchell, Henry Render and Will Hicks. On the first ballot Render received 31 votes, Hicks 30 and Mitchell 7. As Mr. Mitchell received the lowest vote his name was dropped, leaving the contest between Hicks and Render. The second ballot resulted in a tie each man receiving 34 votes. Mr. Hicks on the third ballot received 35 votes to Mr. Render's 33, just enough to elect. The election of vice president was not decided until 1:30 and adjournment was ordered until 1:30 this afternoon.

Mr. Vasey stated that his only wish was for perfect harmony and friendship in the conference to be held here with the operators next Tuesday. That a peaceful agreement for the increase of wages and bettering of conditions would be secured.

The report of Vice President O. W. Wells was heard, which told of the conditions and strength of district No. 23. In the past year seven mines have been organized and joined the union, at the following places: Owensboro, Heley, Lewisport, Hillman, O'ney, Reynolds and Spring Grove.

Secretary Campbell not being ready with his report, a recess was ordered until the report was finished.

Geo. Baker, of Ohio, was elected Secretary-Treasurer on the fourth ballot, defeating W. J. Campbell, the present incumbent.

tral Labor hall was attended by a large crowd, and several good addresses were made with splendid results.

President W. J. White, of Central Labor union, was in the chair, and the first addresses made were by Messrs. O. Barnaby and J. D. Wood, who are officers in the mine workers organizations and among the hardest and most prominent workers in the cause in the state. Both made good talks, and were followed by the secretary of the district association, W. J. Campbell, colored, who made an address along the line that the colored man asks only to not be oppressed or downtrodden by the white. If he is given a chance he will work his way out successfully, according to the speaker, who seemed to make a good impression on his audience.

Mr. Eaton, organizer of the car builders, who has been in the city for some time, also spoke. He criticized the millionaires for the disposition of some of their surplus wealth, and took a full tilt at Judge Adams, of St. Louis, for his Wabash injunction. He, as the others, were warmly applauded.

Mr. W. R. Ferley, of Birmingham, Ala., and Mr. Vasey, of Whiteville, Tenn., who spoke yesterday morning and afternoon, followed in well timed and well delivered addresses, and were cheered to the echo. It was nearly midnight before the crowd dispersed and everybody seemed to enjoy the speaking. The meeting was a great success in every way.

YESTERDAY AFTERNOON.

At the opening of the afternoon session Mr. Joseph Vasey of Whitwell, Tenn., a member of the national executive board, who arrived on the noon train from the south, addressed the convention in an able and forcible manner. Mr. Vasey is well versed on the question of labor in general and especially as to the condition of the union mine workers of the present as well as of the past.

Mr. Vasey stated that his only wish was for perfect harmony and friendship in the conference to be held here with the operators next Tuesday. That a peaceful agreement for the increase of wages and bettering of conditions would be secured.

The report of Vice President O. W. Wells was heard, which told of the conditions and strength of district No. 23. In the past year seven mines have been organized and joined the union, at the following places: Owensboro, Heley, Lewisport, Hillman, O'ney, Reynolds and Spring Grove.

Secretary Campbell not being ready with his report, a recess was ordered until the report was finished.

Geo. Baker, of Ohio, was elected Secretary-Treasurer on the fourth ballot, defeating W. J. Campbell, the present incumbent.

THIS AFTERNOON'S SESSION

As the meeting convened for the afternoon session a telegram was received from George Hargrove, president of the Eleventh district of the United Mine Workers of America, which was read by President Barney and was received with loud applause. The message was worded as follows:

Terre Haute, Ind., March 7, 1903—O. Barnaby, president District 23, U. M. W. A., Paducah, Ky.: Please extend to delegates my best wishes for profitable convention. Indiana is behind you for Indianapolis' sake. Signed: GEORGE HARGROVE, President District 11, U. M. W. A.

President Barney announced that the Palmer house had been selected as the place of assembly for all delegates who wish to attend the "Malone's Wedding" performance at The Kentucky tonight as guests of the union trades council of Paducah. The delegates will meet at 7:30 and go to the opera house in a body. The delegates were also invited by the trades council to meet at the New Richmond hotel at First and Broadway Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock to take a trolley ride over the city.

It has saved thousands of women from terrible suffering and death. Miss Annie Pasold, of DeWitt, Iowa, tells how Paine's Celery Compound made her mother well and strong; she says:

"My mother was taken very sick by approaching change of life and was confined to her bed for seven weeks. We employed the best doctor, but his efforts were of little avail. She could not keep anything on her stomach, could not sleep and she wasted to a shadow. We procured a bottle of Paine's Celery Compound for her. Its use gave grand and wonderful results. She soon slept well at night, got stronger and her appetite returned. She is now well and strong and does her work with pleasure. She would not be without Paine's Celery Compound for any consideration."

River Rising at Several Points—Rains May Somewhat Change Situation.

MINOR RIVER NEWS

Observations taken at 7 a. m. River 40.2 feet on the gauge, a rise of 1.2 in last 24 hours. Wind south, a light breeze. Weather raining and warmer. Rainfall last 24 hours, 1.0 inches. Temperature 63. Peli, Observer.

The late heavy rains have changed the river situation and at least five more feet of water is looked for here. The river men have been anxiously examining all river and weather reports and say from every indication that at least that much water will come down. The river at present is not at such a stage as to do much damage, but five more feet of water will cause some little inconvenience in general. No big flood is expected, although 45 feet is a pretty good stage.

Today's reports show that the rivers are:

TO DON STRIPES

CULMINATION OF A YOUNG MAN'S INDISCRETION.

Stewart Trowell, of a well known family of Marshall county, was brought through the city this morning from Benton by Sheriff David Reeves en route to Eddyville, where the prisoner begins a two year sentence for housebreaking. He was a well-to-do young man until December, when he was caught in the act of robbing John Hesley's store at Gilbertsville.

For quite awhile articles had been raised from the store, as well as money, and no one could ever be obtained to the thief.

Finally the robberies became so frequent that a trap was set, and the young man was caught in the store. He had a skeleton key, and it is said may have been responsible for other burglaries there and in that section, as he seemed to have quite a number of keys.

He was tried at Benton a day or two ago and given two years.

PREPARING FOR TRIAL

TRIGG COUNTY ATTORNEY HERE
LOOKING FOR A WITNESS.

Attorney Max Hanberry, of Cadiz, Trigg county, was in the city today looking for an important witness in a murder case, who is said to be a young negro now in some colored training school in Southern Illinois. The attorney left on the Fowler for Metropolis to locate his man, if possible.

Attorney Hanberry, who formerly lived in Paducah, states that his country is greatly excited over the assassination at Cawon last Sunday of Lieutenant Johnston and the subsequent arrest of the dead man's nephew, Lawrence Wallis, for the crime. He does not think that the young man will have any trouble in proving his innocence, however, the only evidence they have, if it can be considered evidence, is that the two were enemies.

The examining trial comes up Tuesday morning at Cadiz.

The late heavy rains have changed the river situation and at least five more feet of water is looked for here. The river men have been anxiously examining all river and weather reports and say from every indication that at least that much water will come down. MISTRESS MARCH.
You're a crabbed crone and crusty,
Mistress March!
Vibrant is your voice and gusty
As you sweep down highways dusty,
Swaying with abandon lusty
Brittle boughs of oak and larch;
Yet we hail you herald trusty.
Mistress March!

For, despite your storm and stinging,
Mistress March,
Hails you bear of buds upspringing,
Silver sounds of wild birds singing,
Flash of swallows, fleetly winging
Where the blue skies overarch,
Bless you for your message-bringing.
Mistress March!

WHAT GETS CROWDED OUT?
The naturally recurring question at this season is, "What will the society woman do with her spare time in the quietude of Lent?"

With many, perhaps, the Charity club will furnish an escape-valve for their energy and interest. So doubled work may be done along this line. Then the literary clubs have always received new impetus during Lent, when there are not so many other things to divide time with them. The spring sewing is done these days, and various domestic affairs straightened out, while there are so few interruptions. There is more time for church work, too, many find, and are bending their energies in this, perhaps, neglected direction.

By the way, "church work and the busy woman" is one of the problem questions now being propounded. A leading magazine for women had an editorial recently under this caption, and asks: "What will become of church work when woman becomes too busy to do it?" When man became too busy woman was allowed to assume the burden of the honor, and glad of an outlet for her energy, gave of her best royalty to the Sunday school teaching, missionary meetings, the making of altar cloths and vestments and to the fairs, festivals, church suppers, and so on.

But the "busy woman" of today is a very different person from the "busy woman" of yesterday, who did all the work of home and church, and now that she is having careers and clubs of her own, what will she do? Will she finally give up all that to her mother meent so much? The article above referred to says very pertinently and leaves us to think the problem over:

"The Sunday schools begin to notice that she does not offer to teach. She is as tired, after her week's work, as a man, and needs rest on Sunday. She has no free week day afternoons in which to attend missionary meetings. She is making her living, or else she has clubs and courses of reading to attend, or she is at work in a college settlement. The busy woman is the pleated woman, usually, and superior women have been the strength of church guilds and meetings hitherto. The church cannot afford to depend only upon the inferior women, surely. Can this be the meaning of the salaries offered to Sunday school teachers in some of our cities? The whole question is an interesting one, and may have some bearing upon the alleged present decline of church life in America."

MAGAZINE CLUB.

A very delightful meeting of the Magazine club was held on Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Henry Overby of Jefferson street. The reports from the magazines were especially varied and interesting and covered a wide range of subjects.

Quotations were given from Charles Dickens in opening. From Harper's magazine, Mrs. Armour Gardner gave a fine "Characterization of Shelley" and Miss Ora Leigh told most interestingly of "Our Tyrol and its Tykes." The Outlook was ably represented by Mrs. Mildred Davis, Mrs. Victor Voris, and Miss Alice Compton, who cleverly sustained its standard of interest. Mrs. Samuel Hubbard gave an interesting account of "A Tennessee Eagle." Miss Marcella Davis from Munsey's told of "The Decline of the Heroine" in a very bright way.

After the reports a beautiful lunch was served in the dining room. The table was a charming conception in red. Candelabra with red candles and shades formed the centerpiece, and carnations and ferns were artistically arranged in decoration. The course-luncheon was delightful and elaborate.

WHIST CLUB.

The Whist club was very charmingly entertained on Tuesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Moses Schwab at their pleasant home on North Sixth street, in compliment to Mrs. A. C. Einstein of St. Louis, and Mrs. Elizabeth Kingsberger of St. Louis. The violet idea was emphasized throughout the decoration, and bouquets of French violets were presented to each guest.

Mrs. Jacob Wallerstein won the club prize for ladies, a pretty embroidered center piece, and Major M. Bloom the gentlemen's prize, a piece of cut glass. Both the guests of honor were presented with beautiful prizes, Mrs. Einstein receiving a handsome embroidered center piece, and Mrs. Kingsberger a center piece of Mexican drawn work. An elaborate course-luncheon was served during the evening. This was a pretty violet composition, with dainty violet individual cups. The guests were:

Messrs. and Mesdames M. Bloom, Herman Wallerstein, Jacob Wallerstein, Adolph Weil, Mesdames Jeanette Weil, E. B. Schwartzberger, Elizabeth Kingsberger, A. C. Einstein, Mrs. James Greenbaum and Charles Weil.

PRETTY KINDERGARTEN ENTERTAINMENT.

Mrs. Kate Stort's kindergarten class gave a very delightful entertainment and exhibition of their work at the Knights of Pythias hall on Friday evening. The program consisted of drills, marches, kindergarten games, recitations, and songs. American and Scottish history was effectively represented by tableaux of an "Ovation to George and Martha Washington," and Flora McDonald Saving Prince Charlie, these were charmingly carried out. The children acquitted themselves well and greatly delighted the large audience who witnessed the exhibition. Mrs. Stort is an enthusiast in her work and inspires her pupils with the same vivid interest. It was an especially bright and happy occasion.

their charming soil looked most effective.

DAILY THOUGHT.

Be what nature intended you for, and you will succeed, be anything else, and you will be ten thousand times worse than nothing.—Sidney Smith.

THE WEATHER.

Fair and colder tonight and Sunday.

Judging from indications, Judge Cantrell stands some show of at last having one of his decisions affirmed by the court of appeals.

President Roosevelt has received a solid gold invitation to attend the Black Hills mining congress at Deadwood, S. D. The late Mr. Bryan will now have more material for a few double column paragraphs. The invitation should have been in silver.

The court of appeals has decided that special police officers appointed by merchants associations, cannot carry pistols without violating the law. The only way they can legally "tots 'em" is by having themselves sworn in by the regular authorities, as they always do in Paducah.

Five of the Democrats Colonel Hendrick mentioned in a recent speech and classed as former goldhounds and other things, have promptly published denials of this assertion. If this keeps up the people who hear him speak may become disposed to take what he says with a grain of salt.

Farmers complain of the condition of a portion of Broadway just inside the city limits. They usually have to take precautions when they reach it to save themselves from being swamped in the mud. The road outside the city limits is fairly good but inside the city limits, for quite a distance, it is claimed, needs considerable attention. The mayor ought to take a drive out towards his suburban home.

The preliminary steps to call a convention to consider the race question from a non-partisan, non-prejudiced standpoint, have been taken in the state senate of Madison, Wis., when a resolution was passed asking the governor of the state to call on the governors of other states to appoint ten delegates from every state in the union to hold a convention at Atlanta, Ga., July 4. It is believed that a great deal of good could be accomplished at such a convention, and much future trouble avoided. It could possibly at least do no harm.

A great deal of interest is being taken in other parts of the state in Kentucky's exhibit at the St. Louis exposition, and more should be taken here. Paducah and McCracken county can not afford to lag. We claim to be next to Louisville in commercial importance and should not hesitate to prove it in a substantial way by having our share of exhibits at the exposition and contributing our share of the funds towards having Kentucky properly represented.

Governor Beckham, no matter what his own political sagacity may amount to, seems to have some good advisers on the string. Some months ago it was announced that he would file a suit to deprive his eligibility to hold the office of governor, but he didn't—just then. He waited a while until his opponents got out and raved and chewed the rag about his being ineligible, and then filed it. His opponents smile and think they forced him to do it, and he probably wants them to think so; for it gave him an excuse to be declared eligible by Judge Cantrell, and if predictions are well founded, the court of appeals will sustain the opinion. The Democrats in the state who did not intend to vote for Beckham because they believed there was a question as to his eligibility, and did not want to run any risk of nominating a man who if elected might be ousted, may now reluctantly go out and support Beckham and he will have the laugh on his opponents. The latter seem to be beautiful fairies as politicians. They say Mr. Coulter, of Graves county, is one of Mr. Hendrick's advisers. Maybe he is, but it seems to be working in the interest of the Beckham crowd.

THE BUSINESS WORLD

Clearings this week were $715,844
The same week last year..... 552,601
Increase..... 163,747

The clearings this week again show a big increase over the same week last year and indicate that the business of the banks is expanding rapidly. Every week without exception this year has shown an increase, sometimes of 23 to 3 per cent. Bank earnings are running ahead of last year too, and the general outlook for the future is most encouraging.

Some of the traveling men had to come in off the road this week on account of the heavy rains. Business however has been good with the whole sale houses.

Manufacturing concerns report good bookings and forces running full time. Especially are the saddlery and harness, prints factories and woodworking concerns busy.

The Paducah Furniture Manufacturing company has completed a kiln for drying their lumber which will increase the output of the factory to a great extent, and also add to the merit of their product. This company is enjoying the biggest business of their history, and are carrying the name and fame to a wide territory.

Retail merchants are having some spring trade, and are planning for a good season.

COMMISSIONERS MET.

SALOON CLOSING MATTER DISCUSSED AT THE MEETING.

There was an informal meeting of the board of police commissioners last night at the city hall with Mayor Yeiser present. It is understood that the complaint relative to closing the saloons on Sunday was brought up and discussed, but from reports no decision was taken.

According to one of the commissioners, it was claimed that the police have orders from both the chief and the board of commissioners to enforce the laws, and are supposed to be doing it.

CONFEDERATE MEETING.

All Confederates of McCracken county and of the city of Paducah are requested to meet in the city court room on Tuesday, March 16, at 7:30 p. m. Matters of importance and of interest to all will be up for discussion.

All Confederates are requested to call on J. V. Greif, 319 Court street, and enroll their names, company, regiment, amount of service, brigade and division, or the information may be sent through the mail.

WHEN BABY IS COMING USE Mother's Friend

Woman's greatest dream of beauty and glory is when nature has chosen her to become a mother. Every faculty is keenly alert as she foresees the joy, ambition, success and the life-long satisfaction coming nearer, day by day, in the dear and innocent being so soon to see light, and the uncertainty whether she shall see a sweet girl or a brave boy face beside her on the pillow will rest to her expectancy.

Mother's Friend applied externally throughout pregnancy will relieve the pain of parturition, and no mother and child can fail to be healthy, hearty, strong, clear complexioned, pure blooded and cheerful in disposition, who are mutually influenced by the continued use of this great liniment, MOTHER'S FRIEND. ## OFFICERS RE-ELECTED

State Executive Committee Met at Louisville.

Some of the New Plans of the Association.

The old officers were re-elected by the state executive committee of the Y. M. C. A. at a meeting held in Louisville. They are as follows: James Edward Hardy, chairman; John L. Wheat, vice chairman; George L. Burton, recording secretary; Val P. Collins, treasurer. The secretaries of the committee were elected as follows: Henry E. Rosevear, state secretary; F. J. Michael, secretary field department; W. W. Brockman, secretary student department; W. S. Parks, secretary business department.

The report of the treasurer showed that there had been an expenditure of $9,650.18. There is a balance of $59.77.

The plans for the student department provided for an extension of the work to five additional colleges, the placing of four general secretaries at as many colleges now organized, and special efforts to double the membership of the student associations and the enrollment in Bible classes.

The railroad committee will effect several new organizations in addition to the seven railroad associations now in Kentucky. Reports showed that the boys' work is growing rapidly.

Mr. John Lake, who has been secretary of the county work department for the past three and one half years, declined to stand for re-election, because he desired to prepare for work in foreign fields. The state committee will elect his successor at an early date.

SO SWEET AND PLEASING IN TASTE.

2 Mrs. C. Peterson, 625 Lake street, Topeka, Kan., speaking of Ballard's Honeymoon Syrup says: "It has never failed to give entire satisfaction, and of all cough remedies, it is my favorite, and I must confess to my many friends that it will do, and has done, what is claimed for it—to speedily cure a cough or a cold; and it is so sweet and pleasing in taste." 25c, 50c, and $1 bottle at DuBois, Kolb & Co.

Disappointed.

Jasper—What are you looking so annoyed about? Mrs. Jasper—I expected to day to run and didn't get it. This is the 10th day out, and she insisted on staying at home.—Judge.

POLICE WILL NOT TALK.

Buffalo, N. Y., March 7—The mysterious woman in the Bandit murder case has finally been arrested, but the police decline to talk and her name is not known.

FIRE AT PHILADELPHIA.

Philadelphia, March 7—Fire to day destroyed the Franklin Baker Co.'s building, loss $100,000.

Theatrical Notes.

Next week at The Kentucky will be a varied one, melodrama, comedy drama, musical comedy and comic opera, as follows:

Monday night—"The Convict's Daughter."

Tuesday night—"Arizona."

Thursday night—"Pickings from Puck."

Saturday matinee and night—"Rico's Show Girl" Opera company.

A jolly event as well as one of artistic significance will be the appearance of Al ti. Wilson, the golden voiced singer, in his new romantic play, "A Prince of Tatters," a tale of old New York, by Sidney B. Ellis, soon.

The Memphis papers state that Miss Gertrude Lynch, the 14 year old girl who was raped into joining the Dr. Perkins company here, has gone to New York to go on the stage, or study for it. Those who kept up with the evidence in the case will doubtless admit that Miss Lynch is a pretty eligible candidate for the "green" room.

Miss Estha Williams, whose clever work here as Parepe in "At the Old Cross Roads" is doubtless remembered, was suddenly taken ill at Milwaukee a short time ago and had to be carried from the stage. Miss Adelaide Mann, who is well known here and formerly lived in Paducah many years ago, is her understudy and took the part with much credit to herself.

An event of more than ordinary interest to our theater-goers will be the appearance on next Tuesday night, March 10, at The Kentucky, of Miss Elizabeth Lea, who is a cousin of Mr. Robert Morrow, a former resident of our city, in the important part of Bonita in Kirke LaShelle's great play, "Arizona." Miss Lea is a Memphis girl and has a host of friends in Paducah, who are preparing a suitable welcome for her next Tuesday.

"Pickings from Puck," the newest and one of the best comedy reviews of the past ten years, is to be here Thursday night under the direction of Ollie Mack and Joseph M. Gates. The production is on a line with "The Rounders," "The Whirl of the Town," "A Runaway Girl," and other like plays. It will be elaborately mounted and artistically interpreted. Willard Simms, one of the foremost comedians in America, will be seen in the leading role.

It seems that wild west and bandit companies are becoming all the rage. The notorious Indian fighter, Doo Middleton, has just been engaged to play the star part in one, while, as already well known, Frank James and Cole Younger have been engaged for Buckskin Bill's Wild West, formerly out of Pueblo. Buffalo Bill is to retire in a year or two, and there will be a good opportunity for some other wild west concern to step into his shoes as his successor.

Mr. Alden, Mass., who will be remembered here as Sir Chichester Payne, one of the principal characters in "The Gay Lord Quex," which Miss Sybil Linden presented here January 18 last, died a few days ago in Milwaukee from stomach trouble. He was ill but a few days. He was one of the best known character actors in the country, having in recent years made a brilliant success as Noah Vale in Sol Smith Russell's "A Poor Relation," as well as one of the principal characters in "Shore Acres."

Now that the theater-goers of this city have unraveled the mystery of "What Happened to Jones" and have answered to their satisfaction "Why Smith Left Home," they are asked to help in the solution of the identity of "The Wrong Mr. Wright," a farce which J. J. Coleman will present for return date at The Kentucky soon with his excellent company, headed by "that odd fellow," Harry Beresford, who will play the leading role of Seymour Stiles, a part teeming with extravagant metaphor, which we all know is the soul of humor.

One of the best aids to a person suffering with indigestion, the doctors even will agree, is a good laugh. The most mirthful and altogether interesting production which the theatrical world will know this season will be that comedy review, "Pickings from Puck," which will make a tour embracing the principal theaters of all the large cities. An exceedingly clever company has been engaged to interpret the various roles. Mr. Willard Simms, fresh from conquests abroad, is to have the leading comedy role, and this in itself is an assurance that it will be artistically handled. Mr. Simms is possessed of unbounded versatility. His humor is clear and clean cut. The entire production will be complete in every respect and one which no one may afford to miss. It comes to The Kentucky Thursday night.

Webster says the definition of the word "tramp," as applied to a human being, is "a foot traveler; stroller; vagrant; vagabond." Any one of the above terms would apply to Weary Willie, the tramp in "The Convict's Daughter," one of the most powerful dramatic plays by an American author ever produced in this country. But the author has departed from the old conventional lines and made the character a noble one, and on a higher grade than the usual stage tramp. The hero, or "philosophic tramp," as the author calls him, is skilled, determined, cool and rational. His very presence on the stage intensifies the dramatic scenes, and its brilliancy of dialogue and wealth of beautiful scenery has made the play one of the successes of the season. "The Convict's Daughter" will be the attraction at The Kentucky Monday night.

E. E. Rice, the well known producer of musical comedy, can be said to have no equal in that direction when it comes to engaging an array of beautiful women, who at the same time are endowed with talent. He has been responsible for more successful presentations of musical farce comedies than any other manager known today. It is true that Edward "Evergreen" has been lying low of late—that is, since his success "1492"—but has bobbed up squarely the past summer and produced his latest comedy, "The Show Girl," at Wallack's theater, and is once more in the way of making a richer fortune. This play was seen for over ten weeks of success in New York and has been equally fortunate in tour. The organization presenting "The Show Girl" numbers over fifty people, all well known in the theatrical world for their ability. The company will be seen at The Kentucky next Saturday matinee and night.

With all its fascinating light, color and tunefulness and novelty of dialogue and situations, "Floradora," which comes to The Kentucky soon, continues a most powerful magnet in the theatrical world. "Laugh and the world laughs with you; cry and the world laughs on you," as Mickey Finn says. There are enough laughs in "Floradora," goodness knows, and that is one of the big reasons why everybody feels so much better after having seen the wealth of beautiful stage pictures; has heard the catchy tunefulness of the music and felt the rollicking joyfulness of this premier theatrical production. Managers Fisher and Tyley have spared no expense in sending out their road companies, and "Floradora" will be produced here in its absolute entirety by a company numbering over sixty people. Two sixty foot baggage cars are required for the transportation of the "Floradora" scenery and effects.

The record of theatrical success during the past two seasons in New York has been made by "Arizona." It was first presented in Chicago and later in Boston. "Arizona" ran without a break at the Iroquois theater until January 5, 1901, thereby establishing the record of the year. Pre-

THE TRUTH ABOUT BREAD

FROM LONDON "CHIC."

In a recent issue of Chic, one of the best illustrated weeklies for which London is famous, a writer on scientific foods says: "There was never coined a more delusive phrase than 'Bread the staff of life,' because bread is almost the worst of all foods unless the eater knows all about its properties. It is poison to the man in a hurry."

Here follows a long argument.

"Why not," asked the dietetic experts, "do for the bread and other cereal foods what the mastication does so that those whose digestions are enfeebled may be fully nourished, that is, derive every grain of nutriment possible from the food and avoid the discomforts of indigestion, the pains after eating, flatulence, acidity, heartburn and the hosts of evils indicating faulty digestion?" Why not prepare a food so perfectly that if it be eaten in a hurry, or bolted, it will be as readily digested as if chewed five minutes?

"To convert the starch in cereals into the form of Grape Sugar which is most agreeable to the stomach and which can be immediately taken up by the system as nourishment is what has been done in Grape Nuts which, for the reasons I have given, is a far more healthful and nourishing food than the best porridge or bread and can be eaten with advantage by persons with one of the most delicate stomachs."

"This food discovery comes from America, but widespread recognition of its valuable properties is, to my thinking, much hampered by a name which is meaningless, even to the chemist or dietist. I must confess to not understanding the meaning of 'Grape Nuts' when I first saw it, but an examination of this food discovery reveals it as one of the most important dietary advances ever made."

Note—The name is partly derived from Grape Sugar and the term "Nuts" is suggested by the nutty flavor. The entire word is the register'd trade mark.

CUTICURA OINTMENT

Purest of Emollients and Greatest of Skin Cures.

The Most Wonderful Curative
of All Time

For Torturing, Distracting Humours.

Cuticura Ointment is beyond question
the most successful curative for torturing, distracting humours of the skin and scalp, including loss of hair, ever compounded, in proof of which a single anointing with it, preceded by a hot bath with Cuticura Soap, and followed in the severer cases by a dose of Cuticura Resolvent Pills, is often sufficient to afford immediate relief in the most distressing forms of itching, burning and seedy humours, permits rest and sleep, and points to a speedy cure when all other remedies fail. It is especially so in the treatment of infants and children, cleansing, soothing and healing the most distressing of infantile humours, and preserving, purifying and beautifying the skin, scalp and hair.

Cuticura Ointment possesses, at the same time, the charm of satisfying the simple wants of the toilet, in caring for the skin, scalp, hair and hands from infancy to age, far more effectively, agreeably and economically than the most expensive of toilet emollients.
Its "instant relief for skin-tortured babies," or "Smooth, antiseptic cleansing," or "One-night treatment of the hands," or "Single treatment of the hair," or "Use after athletics," cycling, golf, tennis, riding, sparring, or any sport, each to connect with the use of Cuticura Soap, is sufficient evidence of this.

Millions now rely on Cuticura Soap, assisted by Cuticura Ointment, for preserving, purifying and beautifying the skin, for cleansing the scalp of crusts, seas and dandruff, and the stopping of falling hair, for softening, whitening and soothing red, rough and sore hands, for baby rashes, teething and chafing, as well as for all purposes of the toilet, bath and nursery.

PERFECT ASSIMILATION

heartily, even ravenously, yet nothing seems to "stick to their

don't eat much,
but assimilate
all nutriment in the food and get
fat. We have letters from people who say that makes them fat. It doesn't. It simply gets their digestive organs in shape to take the nutriment out of the foods which they eat. It also acts as a gentle laxative and tonic. Please try it.

A. G. Jones, of Mortonville, Ind., writes: "I can say for Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepin that it is one of the best medicines I have taken in all my days after I began to take your medicine, I had gained 20 pounds in weight, felt like a new man and I can highly recommend it to any one who is troubled with

The SOUTHERNERS

By Cyrus Townsend Brady

Author of "Woven With the Ship," "Hobenzollern,"
"The Quibber Touch," Etc.

Copyright, 1892, by Cyrus Townsend Brady

1900

"I hope so." "She won't, though," interrupted pink, "unless you are on the side of the south."

"Well, that is where he will be, of course," said his father.

As Peyton walked out of the room with his heart heavy at the contingencies before him and closed the door he heard Willa remark:

"What he says is all right, father,
and if I know him he'll never be false to his idea of duty; but the trouble is, what is his idea of duty? That's the point of the argument."

Willa was unusually shrewd for a boy of his years.

CHAPTER X. THE INDECISION OF PEYTON.

THE passage of that act of secession in Charleston, S. C., marked the beginning of trouble for all the persons concerned in this story. Also, it marked the beginning of trouble for a great many persons concerned in a great many stories which shall never be told.

Peyton had been entirely honest in his conversation with his father. He had not made up his mind, and in the intervening days he tried hard to do so. Making up his mind finally and definitely upon any subject except Mary Annan had been rather a difficult task to him heretofore.

There were long discussions between father and son concerning the rights and wrongs of the situation. Colonel Peyton was the extreme type of southern man. He believed that slavery was a divine institution warranted by Biblical teaching and sanctioned alike by morality and expediency. Looking upon the negro as an inferior race, he would hear of no condemnation of the system by which they were held. In his own case his slaves were happy and contented. His ownership and rule were mild and benevolent, and his slaves adored him. This was the case with most people he knew, and he willfully or perhaps unconsciously blinded himself to any other feature of it.

Aside from any consideration of the slave question, his state was easily paramount to the United States or any other of them in his affections, and he was unable to understand how there could be any hesitation on the part of his son as to his duty. He pried him with every argument at his command, while by the most violent efforts he barely succeeded in preserving some measure of his self control in the daily discussions.

At first Boyd thought to break away from these recurring periods of heated debate and solve himself in the society of the woman he loved. But here again exactly the same state of affairs supervened. If possible, Mary Annan was more force and determined in her sentiments than his father. She was completely swept away by the situation. He found that whereas she had been willing before to allow him to pour his tale of affection in her listening ears and had even played at love-making herself now she had but one topic of conversation, and he was forced compelled to confine himself to the discussion of that or remain silent.

When he was with neither father nor sweetheart and resorted to the society of Darrow and the young men of his old time acquaintance, he found that no other subject for conversation could be started and maintained with them either. In truth, there was reason for this concentration of mind upon one item, this social obsession upon secession. As he entered more and more into the spirit of his environment he saw more and more clearly the irreconcilable nature of the opinions held by north and south upon the question of slavery.

The right of a state to secede from the general government had never been tested. Threats had been freely indulged in from time to time in periods of stress, in moments of exigency, by both northern and southern states.

John Hancock and Massachusetts leading off, but they had not been seriously regarded hitherto in our national history—except in one instance, powerfully—and the action of South Carolina, which was, after all, inevitable, came with the force of a sudden surprise.

Such was the contagion of the idea, however, that every slave owning state immediately fell in line. Although they perhaps did not realize it, they were all ripe for secession. South Carolina was no more determined than the rest. She had merely anticipated that, was all.

There were many, like Judge Annan, for instance, who thought secession unnecessary on account of Lincoln's election; who deplored it, fought against it, argued against it with all their powers, but who, it was certain, would eventually accept it with all its consequences in case or when it should be brought about.

The warlike spirit of the south evidenced itself in the upspringing in every city or village of new military companies, and the young men who had seen nothing of its horrors, who knew nothing of its woes by experience, were clamorous for war. The southerners affected to hold the men of the north in great contempt, but deep down in their secret hearts they

STILL ON TRIAL.

EMBEZZLEMENT CASE WILL BE FINISHED SHORTLY AT HARTFORD.

The dispatches from Hartford, Ky., state that the embezzlement charges against Schliemann and Boatner in connection with the alleged $28,000 express robbery are still on trial.

The evidence has been substantially the same as that presented at the conspiracy trial to which they were so admitted. The express company claims that there was but $22 in gold in the case, it being a conspiracy to swindle the company. Route Agent C. A. Abbott of the city is expected home this evening from the trial.

SURPRISE WEDDING

Miss Wright and Mr. Joe Plastrik Married Thursday.

Bride Lives Here and the Groom in Nashville.

Announcement was made today of the marriage Thursday at Nashville of Miss Nell Wright, a popular young lady who has made her home here with her uncle, Mr. J. R. Province, for some time past, to Mr. Joe A. Plastrik of Nashville, who travels out of St. Louis, but came originally from New York.

The young lady, who is pretty and popular, went to visit relatives in Tennessee several days ago, and by appointment met the young man and they were married. Mr. Province and his niece formerly resided at Paris, Tenn., but have lived here for the past year or more.

The couple came on to Paducah yesterday afternoon over the N. C. & St. L., and intended to keep the marriage a secret, but it leaked out.

Mr. Province is local agent for the National Implement Co. The marriage was performed at the residence of Rev. Robertson, the Methodist minister. The couple will leave in a few days for St. Louis to reside.

RAGING RIVERS

Corn Swept Away by the Little Wabash.

Nearing the Danger Line at Louisville Today.

AT LOUISVILLE.

Louisville, Ky., March 7—The river is within a few feet of a foot of the danger line here, but has about come to a stand. It is expected that the water will begin to fall by tonight. No damage has been done.

AT EVANSVILLE.

Evansville, Ind., March 7—The Ohio river continues to rise here, and stands 30.7 feet. It is thought the crest of the rise will reach here about Monday, when a stage of about 42 feet will be reached. The Wabash, Rough Pond and Green rivers are still rising. The Little Wabash river is the biggest. It has been for many years, and a great deal of corn along the stream is being swept away.

AT METROPOLIS.

Metropolis, Ill., March 7—Rain fell all night and today, and the Ohio river is rising rapidly. The river is now three feet above the danger line. The lower portions of Metropolis are flooded, and a few more feet of water will compel the closing down of several factories.

Chicken and Dumplings at the Meca tonight.

Flexibility of a "Dorothy Dodd"

EASY SOLES

IT IS SAID that the woman who goes to church with squeaky shoes goes to the right place, for her sole needs attention.

There is really a good deal about the sole of a woman's shoe that needs attention. You realize it if you stop to think how much you relieve the discomfort and "hardness" of shoes by making their soles flexible.

So far as I know (and I have taken pains to examine many different makes of shoes) the "Dorothy Dodd" is the one shoe for women that is really constructed with a flexible sole.

You can tell the difference as soon as a few steps have been taken. It means comfort. And a flexible sole, as rule, will outlast any rigid sole—don't overlook that!
